

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Tech > Authorisation codes > The authorisation code does not work after changing the registrant. Why?

The authorisation code does not work after changing the registrant. Why?

Agent - 2023-07-07 - Authorisation codes

The EPP server generates a new authorisation code if a domain name is updated with a new registrant ID. This means that a code generated within the domain update is invalid and, therefore, cannot be used.