

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Registrar Transfer > Can a registrar transfer be done even if the domain name has been deactivated?

Can a registrar transfer be done even if the domain name has been deactivated?

Agent - 2024-05-30 - Registrar Transfer

Yes, it is possible if the domain is deactivated because it has expired. If it is deactivated and at the same time blocked from changing the registrar due to an ongoing verification of registrant data, the registrar change cannot be performed.