Support Portal | Registry Services

How will the registrant be informed that a deregistration has occurred?

Agent - 2026-10-09 - Deregistration of domains

According to the routine description for deregistration, the registrant must be informed by the registrar, and according to the general requirements in the registrar agreement, a receipt must be recorded for every registration service. This is usually done by e-mail.