

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Deregistration of domains > How will the registrant be informed that a deregistration has occurred?

How will the registrant be informed that a deregistration has occurred?

Agent - 2020-04-30 - Deregistration of domains

According to the routine description for deregistration, the registrant must be informed by the registrar, and according to the general requirements in the registrar agreement, a receipt must be recorded for every registration service. This is usually done by e-mail.