

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Tech > Miscellaneous tech > How can I know if a contact ID is already in use?

How can I know if a contact ID is already in use?

A.A - 2022-07-04 - Miscellaneous tech

You can use the "<contact: check />" command to find out if a contact ID is already used or not. Common practice is to send a "<contact: check />" command that controls multiple "<contact: id />" at once and then use the first available one.