

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Renewal of domains > Can Registry Services help a registrant renew a domain name?

Can Registry Services help a registrant renew a domain name?

Agent - 2022-08-19 - Renewal of domains

No, payments for annual domain name fees are made to the registrar who subsequently renews the domain name with Registry Services.

If any problems arise due to this, the registrant must contact the registrar.

The registrar is responsible for performing the registration service and ensuring that they have sufficient resources and skills to do so.