Support Portal | Registry Services

Can Registry Services reregister a domain name in quarantine when the domain has not been renewed on time?

Agent - 2022-07-08 - Renewal of domains

No. No action can be taken on quarantined domains, neither by a registrar nor by Registry Services.

After the quarantine period the domain will be released, and only then can the domain be registered - the "first come, first serve" principle applies.