

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Renewal of domains > If a registrant chooses to register or renew a domain name for a multiple year period, can we as registrars choose to register or renew the domain on an annual basis?

If a registrant chooses to register or renew a domain name for a multiple year period, can we as registrars choose to register or renew the domain on an annual basis?

Agent - 2022-08-11 - Renewal of domains

No, this is not permitted. As registrars, you must register or renew the domain name for the same period as the registrant has paid for.