

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Deregistration of domains > As a registrar, what do you do if the registrant claims an incorrect deregistration?

As a registrar, what do you do if the registrant claims an incorrect deregistration?

Agent - 2022-07-07 - Deregistration of domains

You initiate an investigation of whether an incorrect deregistration occurred. The registrar must have appropriate routines to check a person's identity. Make sure to save the information so that you can show for your procedure and make corrections if any errors occur.