Support Portal | Registry Services

What is a redelegation?

Agent - 2026-11-12 - Handling nameservers

A redelegation is change in the DNS data for a domain name, and more specifically a change of the NS record in a zone file for a certain domain name. NS record includes the name of the server where further information about a certain domain name is available.