What are the requirements of GDPR and Data Protection Act?

Agent - 2022-10-17 - Legal

Among other things, the following requirements apply when processing personal data:

- A legal basis (for example, consent, contractual relationship or balance of interests) is required for processing personal data,
- Anyone who processes personal data is obliged to provide information to the data subject (the physical person) about the processing of personal data,
- Anyone who processes personal data is obliged to correct personal data that is incorrect,
- Anyone who processes personal data must protect personal data through appropriate technical and organizational measures.
- If personal data processors handle personal data on behalf of the person who processes personal data (personal data controller), the processing of personal data shall be regulated by an agreement (so-called personal data processing agreement).
