

Support Portal | Registry Services

Knowledgebase > Routines > Deregistration of domains > Can Registry Services upon request reregister a domain that is in quarantine?

Can Registry Services upon request reregister a domain that is in quarantine?

Agent - 2022-08-16 - Deregistration of domains

No. No action can be taken on quarantined domains, neither by a registrar nor by Registry Services. Domains in status quarantine are deregistered.

After the quarantine period the domain will be released, and only then can the domain be registered - the "first come, first serve" principle applies.